Season Finale

The 2011–2012 tournament season ended with a whoosh on July 31, as Life Master (6★) Duane Toll (Sutherlin OR) sucked up even more MRPs on his way to another national championship.

In the final month of play, twenty-four tournaments were held coast-to-coast—from Reno to Raleigh, and at such diverse points in between as Kenosha, Pahrump, St. Cloud, and Sunnyside. A total of 2,751 players entered these sanctioned tournaments—twelve of them in the last week alone—as several MRP-chasers made major moves in the standings.

In Raleigh, Master Marvin Lewis (Chesapeake VA) skated through seventeen rounds of play without a loss—and without his trademark ponytail—and captured the thirty-ninth National Open championship. This exquisite performance in the last weekend of the season secured for Marvin a top fifty placing in the Eastern Region.

Several point-chasers descended on the small Midwestern town of St. Cloud MN to fight over the cool trophies awarded at four mains and four consolations played in the space of six days. Don Urban (Marengo IL) did so well in St. Cloud that he jumped from #23 to #11 in the Central Region standings, in the process both earning his Master Award and becoming an alternate on the Central Region All Star team.

Not surprisingly, the biggest action seemed to revolve around Life Master (★) Cy Madrone (Santa Bar-

My Deal

by David Aiken

I'm a policy wonk. I want to know how an organization works, what makes it tick, what the power structure looks like, who actually does the work, what the limits are.

This means that long before I was a member of the Board of Directors I was attending BOD meetings. I'd be there for the opening roll call; I'd listen to all the proposals and discussions; and I'd hang around until Cathy Perkins (Bear Creek NC) uttered her trademark: "Madame President, I move we adjourn."

This issue of Cribbage World therefore delights my inner wonk because it contains two important BOD-related items: the minutes from the last BOD meeting in February may be found on pages 37–38, and the agenda for the upcoming BOD meeting later this month is printed on page 20.

I probably can't expect everyone to have the same interest in the BOD meetings that I had—and have. (What an imperfect world we live in—sigh!) But surely there's at least one item on the BOD agenda to interest almost everyone.

Apart from the wonky stuff like committee and officers' reports, we'll elect new officers for the upcoming year, thrash out proposed changes to the makeup of the All American team, discuss changes to the ACC's policy manual, plus listen to a wide variety of new topics proposed by BOD members—cell phone policy, sanctioning fees for consolations, youth MRPs, higher seeded players dealing first in play-offs, moving Ohio to the Central Region, wrap-around tourneys, the region someone plays in the most determining their region for BOD elections and awards, renaming the TOC, and much more!

I invite you sit in on the ACC's Board of Directors meeting on September 21 in Appleton WI. The meeting starts at nine o'clock in the morning and lasts until all twenty-nine items on the agenda—what a perfect cribbage number!—are proposed, discussed, sliced, diced, hashed, rehashed, and voted on. You don't have to attend the entire meeting, but can come and go (quietly) as you please, so that you can listen in on the topics of most interest to you.

I look forward to seeing many friends in Appleton later this month. And I hope you won't miss the chance to see your BOD members at work. CW

Target practice: feel free to take aim at the CW editor whenever we play—but be careful, or your name might end up in the center column!

Granting a Dying Man His Wish

Lee Bailey, a founding member and director of Space Coast Peggys Club 336, learned he had cancer and was given only about two months to live. During a visit with him, he mentioned that he had qualified for his Bronze Award last season and hoped his jacket would arrive before he died. Grass Roots Region IX statistician Cathy Perkins was contacted about this the same day. She immediately called Grass Roots commissioner Joan Rein, who in turn contacted Jeanne Wauters, who orders the awards. When Jeanne received the jackets from the supplier, she mailed Lee's jacket via overnight express, and it was presented to him by his son Scott (a member of Greater Okaloosa Club 131 in Fort Walton Beach FL) and other family members two days before he died. A huge thank you to these three ladies from Lee's family and the members of the Space Coast Peggys for a job well done.

James Wysocki (Merritt Island FL)

Thanks

I would like to thank all my cribbage friends who took the time to come to Marv's visitation. I would further like to express my gratitude to tournament director Don Urban, who authorized an extra-long lunch so that these people could make the trip from southern Kenosha to northern Racine. Having all of you show up made a difficult time easier.

Connie Staven (Racine WI)

Rename That Tourney!

Why not rename the tournaments Platinum (instead of main) and Gold (instead of consolation)? With those names, each winner's trophy carries a prestigious connotation.

Portland Open July 15 was a good day to be a member of the Symons family (Madras OR). Grandfather Marty Symons placed ninth in the consolation. Grandson Ian Symons took fifth. And grandmother Irma Symons qualified #2 and took first place.

Run for the Gold For the first time since joining the ACC thirteen years ago, Jim Crawford (Mountain View CA) got a string of pearls—in the consolation at Alta CA. If this can happen to a former winner of both the 2004 Grand National and the 2005 JPW/ACC Open, it can happen to anyone!

Midweek Challenge Life Master (★) Frank Ornie (Drain OR) stopped Life Master (6★) DeLynn Colvert (Missoula MT) from claiming his fourth consecutive championship. DeLynn won the consolation in 2009 and the main in 2010 and 2011, only to come up just short in his bid for a four-peat!

National Open Eleven Connecticut players traveled seven hundred miles to play in Raleigh, and ten of them earned MRPs. Grand Master Roger Bouchard (Glastonbury CT) finished third in the NOCT main, and Life Master (★) Phil Martin (Newington CT) finished second in the Come Monday tourney. Unfortunately, he had to forfeit the championship match in order to catch his plane home!

The MRPs that Cy earned in July pushed him ahead of both Life Master (★) Mel Ashley (Marina CA) and Life Master (★) Erik Locke (Wood Village OR) in the Western Region standings and earned Cy his second appearance on the All American squad.

Meanwhile, in southern California, Mel Ashley made it to the finals of the South Sacramento Moose Madness main tourney. As good as this was, it left Mel just a few points away from securing a spot on the Western Region All Star team. But it wasn't all bad news for Mel, as he did capture his second All American award.

Of course, the biggest news of the season's end is that Duane Toll is once again the ACC champion. He won his eighth championship in impressive fashion: by winning seven tournaments throughout the year and by setting a new seasonal record of 3,121 MRPs—shattering by 350 points his previous record of 2,771 MRPs, a mark that he set last year.

Here's how Duane now stacks up against ACC leader Life Master (6★) DeLynn Colvert (Missoula MT):

	MRPs	wins
Colvert	37,193	77
Toll	36,414	75
difference =	779	2

At this time last year, these numbers were 2,426 MRPs and 6 tourneys. CW

The cover of the September 1987 Cribbage World announced the goings-on at the ACC's annual meeting held at Raleigh NC in conjunction with the National Open. Joseph Petrus Wergin was elected for his eighth term as ACC president. Syl Lulinski (La Grange Park IL) was elected as the ACC's first executive vice president.

Elsewhere in this issue we read that Bob Madsen (Niles IL) and Rasty Rasmussen (Anamosa IA) were elected to the Hall of Fame. Harold Sontag (Vacaville CA) won the California Classic consolation, Lee Horigan (Easton MA) won the Maine Open, and Albert Miller (Nashua NH) took second in the National Open.

Cribbage Sudoku

by Farokh Ziari (Fremont CA)

To solve the easy sudoku (below), place each of the letters W-E-R-G-I-N (in honor of the ACC's founder, Joseph Petrus Wergin) in every row, column, and 2x3 box exactly once.

	E			N
R					G
G
	R	N			E
		I			R
			E	G

To solve the hard sudoku (right), place each of the letters C-R-I-B-B-A-G-E in every row, column, and 2x4 box exactly once. This variant on standard sudoku uses an 8x8 grid and contains the letter B twice—which complicates the puzzle (okay, makes it hard!), but it can be worked out by the same logical methods used to solve standard sudokus.

		B	A	G	C		E
		G			I		B

2012 Batting Average Competition

The 2012 batting average contest drew to a conclusion on July 31, and the winners in each region are listed in the right column.

The 2012–2013 contest has already started, with slightly modified rules for the full season. If you would like to play, contact the statistician in your region:

Central: David Aiken
(cribbage@iserv.net)

Eastern: David Statz
(davidstatz@hotmail.com)

Note: if someone is willing to compile Western Region stats for the coming year, please let David Aiken know.

The President's Column

by Jeanne Hofbauer

Well, another season of cribbage is over, and many of our membership are busy tabulating statistics, ordering and making awards, and making sure that the publication and distribution of those awards is done correctly and on a timely basis. By the time you receive this issue of Cribbage World, most of this work will be finished, and you will be reading the final results.

Most of the awards given out by the ACC are for points earned in internet, Grass Roots, or sanctioned tournament play. But there are also awards for service to the organization, which recognize our most outstanding volunteers.

Award distribution is accomplished in different ways. They can be sent to you or to your Grass Roots director, but the most fun way to receive an award is at the annual awards banquet at the Grand National tournament. There you are recognized by your peers and get the benefit of the applause and your "moment in the spotlight." The GN tournament directors work very hard to make sure the recipients get the attention they deserve.

ACC awards are a tangible way of showing your accomplishments in play or service, and I hope that you are proud of earning them. Congratulations to all of this year's recipients.

Jeanne

Hint for hard sudoku: R goes in the fifth column of the first row. Need another hint? See page 20.

Welcome to New Members

The ACC welcomed 21 new members during July. When you see these folks down the tournament trail or at your cribbage club, welcome them with a hearty handshake, answer their questions, and then sit down with them and enjoy the best two-handed card game ever invented.

ACC Awards

Keith is a charter member of the ACC, having started playing at the National Open before there was an ACC! He's earned his Silver Award in Grass Roots, and he celebrated his most recent birthday by being high nonqualifier in Du-luth! Keith has won twenty-six sanctioned tourneys, his first at the 2002 Hampton Roads Shootout in Norfolk VA and his most recent in Kenosha WI. When not playing cribbage, Keith works in his accounting business—which started as a hobby and has now turned into full-time work doing taxes or bookkeeping or payroll. With his wife, Beth, living in Green Bay WI and his business located in North Carolina, Keith spends a lot of time on Delta, flying approximately one hundred segments a year.

Keith E. Widener
(Clemmons NC)
Life Master (★) #78

Roger's father taught him how to play cribbage as a counting aide, and he's taken to it rather well. He joined the ACC in 1997 and originally looked to Hall of Famer Richard "Rit" Alkas as his mentor. Phil Martin now fills that role. A member of Hartford Metro Club 26, he's been club champion once and has earned his Silver Award. Winner of eight sanctioned tourneys, his favorite is the TOC in Reno. He says that the members of Club 26 represent his biggest challenge. Roger enjoys traveling (ocean cruising with his wife of fifty-one years, Mary Ann), reading, and walking.

Roger J. Bouchard
(Glastonbury CT)
Life Master #192

A friend taught Jim, his wife Claudia, and his friends Stan and Vicki Billingsley to play cribbage in 1975 while on vacation in Hawai'i. He joined the ACC in 2003 and is a member of Livermore Peggars Club 337. He has now won eight sanctioned events, his first being the Whale Watch tourney on an Alaskan cruise in 2006. His favorite tournament is the ACC Open in Reno every February; his toughest opponent is Stan Billingsley; and his favorite cribbage moment this year was being sixth in the GRNT with a 32/18 card. Jim has too many cribbage mentors to name: close friends, club members, and traveling companions. After Claudia died in 2005 he began playing cribbage full time, and Jim freely admits that he doesn't know what he would do without cribbage and the ACC. It's no wonder that Jim includes friends and travel (along with family and golf) as his noncribbage interests.

End of Season Wrap-Up

Mike Fetchel (mfetchCT425) sat atop the IRP leader board the last half of the year and coasted to his third internet championship. He was internet champion in 2004 and 2011. Mark Van Dyke (loosespokes), also a previous internet champion (2005 and 2010), came in second. For winning two tournaments during July, the following share the July player of the month honors: David D. Braach (papa349), Paul Gregson (A7nZ4sDad), and Monica Newton (oreo2757). The TDs held a total of 243 tournaments this season.

In Memoriam

Leroy Eugene Bailey

Lee Bailey (Merritt Island FL) passed away on July 28 at age 75. A teacher in Brevard County, he based his career on the belief that every student could learn mathematics. Founder and director of the Space Coast Peggars Club in Merritt Island, Lee had recently earned his Bronze Award. Win or lose, he was always a gentleman. Lee is survived by his son and daughter-in-law Scott and Jennifer Bailey.

Bill Johnson

Bill Johnson (Red Bluff CA) passed away in June after an extended battle with muscular dystrophy. Bill joined the ACC in 1997 and was an integral part of the Red Hot Peggars Club for fifteen years. Bill earned both his Master rating and his Bronze Award (and was close to Silver). He holds the club record of 293 GRPs in one season. Several years ago, fellow pegger John Gray gave Bill a hand-carved cane suitably decorated with a 29-hand to help him get around. John had carved a 29-hand in the handle with the 5 of Diamonds as the cut card. Astonishingly, a few weeks after receiving the cane, Bill had this exact 29-hand at Grass Roots! Bill's noncribbage passion was helping with Special Olympics in the Red Bluff area.

Lloyd L. Kraft

Lloyd "Gabby" Kraft (Seymour WI) passed away on August 7 at age 86. Lloyd served in the U.S. Army in the Pacific during World War II and also during the Korean conflict. He worked thirty-three years for Proctor and Gamble. Gabby was outgoing and friendly, but on the cribbage board he was a tough competitor. Gabby had earned both his Life Master (★) rating and Silver Award. In addition, he twice won the ACC Open: the main in 1999 and the consolation in 2006—a feat duplicated by very few others. Gabby is survived by his son-in-law and traveling partner Michael Gonnering.

Thomas P. Shea Jr.

Thomas "Tossie" Shea (Springfield MA) passed away on July 31—just twelve days before his ninetieth birthday. A veteran of World War II, he served thirty-three years as a firefighter in Springfield. He had earned his Bronze Award as a member of Club 72 in Longmeadow MA and was well on his way to his Master rating. We will miss Tossie and his easygoing ways and friendly attitude.

Scorecard of the Month

Gabby sent this scorecard to CW just weeks before his death in early August. He wrote: "I've never had a card like this! Been playing cribbage for sixty years."

Youth Teaching Tip

One important thing to teach kids learning the game of cribbage is the strong luck factor involved—perhaps as much as 80% luck and 20% skill. With that knowledge, a young player may better understand if he or she is defeated by a player with lesser skills, or not get too big of a head if they beat a veteran player. Often at tournaments, I see people get frustrated and upset about getting bad cards or rarely catching a cut. Let's all remember that cribbage is a game to be played for fun. The only thing that gets in the way of the fun is when we take winning or losing too seriously.

Youth News

Requests for teaching manuals and startup kits are on the rise. Approximately 90% of all requests are from teachers wanting to incorporate cribbage into their math classes or as an elective. The youth component of the ACC is essential to keep the game of cribbage alive in our younger generations, ultimately maintaining a healthy ACC membership in the future. There is no cost for sending out teaching manuals, but a startup kit (ten long boards) costs $150 to process. Donations made to the ACC Youth Program make it possible to place these boards in classrooms. When you renew your membership, please consider contributing to the Youth Program (check the donation option on the membership form) so we continue to have the necessary funds to meet these requests.

Rico Schmidt (Clearwater MN), thirteen years old, earned a $500 college scholarship by winning the 2012 Granite City Junior Classic in St. Cloud MN on July 27. A seven-game round robin was followed with playoffs. Twelve-year-old Michael Schaefer (St. Cloud) earned a $250 scholarship by taking second place. Rico and Michael bested a group of eighteen players from as far away as Appleton WI. Nickolas Shepherd and Noah Shepherd (Eagan MN) captured third place and $100 scholarships for both. Bryan Crossman (Eagan MN) finished fifth ($50 scholarship).

Teaching Manuals

Recent requests for youth teaching manuals were received from the following people. Watch for a youth boom in these areas!

- John Hewitt (Sherbrooke QC)
- Amanda Martes (Aztec NM)

Cribbage Board of the Month

BY JAY FULWIDER

This cribbage board belongs to ACC member Del Meyer (Monterey CA), who plays in the Monterey Marauders Grass Roots Club 82.

Del's wife bought the board for him to commemorate his time in the U.S. Navy during the Korean War. Del was part of an Air Group assigned to the ship Phillipine Sea (CV47) in 1952–53. The original cribbage board has been painted, numbers and gun turrets were added, and Del made airplane pegs.

Besides playing cribbage, Del, who is 78, plays badminton a few times a week. He also attends car shows and classic races with his Austin Healey. Cribbage for the mind, exercise for the body, and a little fun—we should all be so lucky.

On another note, I want to thank ACC webmaster Diane Waite and youth program director Dan Zeisler for referring cribbage board questions on to me. Many of them come from people who don't know about the ACC and just find our website while trying to get information about cribbage boards. Both Diane and Dan are listed on the web site as contacts, so they field a lot of questions. You read every month about Dan's youth cribbage program, but you probably don't know too much about Diane. All I have to say is, go to the ACC website and check it out! It is one of the best sites around, and Diane does a wonderful job with it. So thanks again to Diane and Dan.

Jay Fulwider collects cribbage boards in picturesque Washington State. Ideas for and questions about this column may be sent to him at budandotis@msn.com (put "Cribbage Board" in the subject line). For more information on cribbage boards and collecting, visit cribbageboardsonline.com, the Cribbage Board Collectors Society website.

Tri-Valley Peggery Club 337 (Livermore CA)—on July 10, the temperature was 103. Once we started playing, it got even hotter. In game three Stan Billingsley got a 28-hand. Not to be outdone, in game five Vicki Billingsley also got a 28-hand. To top everything off, by the end of play, Russ Cuckler had a grand slam. Man, it was one hot night! submitted by Dennis Murphy

Sea-Tac Peggery Cribbage Club 148 (Federal Way WA)—Wayne Ness had hot hands three weeks in a row, scoring 17/7 +91, 17/8 +66, and 17/7 +138 on June 26 through July 10. On July 17 the club brought him back down to earth, allowing him to win only two of his first eight games; but then in the ninth game Wayne nailed Stu Kelly by 65 points—ruining Stu’s grand slam! This is the first time in our club’s recorded history that one member has taken first place three weeks in a row and that a club member has had three successive 17 cards. submitted by Hal Lamon

Florida All Star Tourney—the fifth annual FAST was held in south Florida on July 14, hosted by Palm Beach County Cribbage Club with five clubs fielding teams. The winner was Greater Orlando Cribbage Club (for the third time) consisting of Ted Southland, David Fournier, Fred Dryden, and John Blowers. Individual honors went to Mark Mano playing with the Peg-a-Longs in Haines City, followed closely by Southland. submitted by Ray Wanke

Michigan All Star Tourney—the eighth annual MAST was held in Grand Rapids on July 14, hosted by Grand Rapids Square Peggery. Eight clubs fielded four-player teams, and Muskegon took first place (their second win). Club members were Jeff Shimp, David Cummings, Mark Van Dyke, and Al Vredeveld. Individual honors went to Dan Shanoski (Rochester Hill), who in twenty-eight games scored 45/22 +238! Shimp took second, and Cummings was third. submitted by Dave Aiken

Main Tourney Playoffs

Effective August 1, all main tournament playoffs are required to be best of five games throughout the playoffs—including the first round of one-day tourneys. On rare occasions, if time constraints require an early exit from the playing location, the regional tournament commissioner may approve best of three games, but any exception must be requested prior to the start of the tournament.

Grass Roots Division Winners

Joseph Cornelissen (Rotonda West FL) is the Grass Roots national champion and Division 1 champion. Joseph was also the national champion in the 2007–2008 season, when he set the national record of 383 GRPs. This year, he set a new record by scoring an astounding 461 points in only thirty weeks of play!

Joseph scored 12+ GRPs in twenty-nine of the thirty weeks he played at Club 147 in Port Charlotte FL, and he scored 15+ GRPs twenty-one times. Over the course of the season he won 212 games and lost only 58, for a winning percentage of 78.5%. He had four grand slams (all at 20/9), and 46 of his 212 wins were skunks (21.7%). Conversely, Joseph was skunked only five times all year! For the record, his net points were +3,272 on the season.

This year all three division champions played in warm-weather clubs, as the Division 2 champ is Jason Matheny (Houston TX), and Kurt Bloeser (Phoenix AZ) repeats as Division 3 champion.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MEETING • FEBRUARY 9, 2012

SANDS REGENCY CASINO HOTEL • RENO NV

(presented in condensed form)

President Jeanne Hofbauer called the meeting to order at 9a. Directors present were Dave Aiken, Paul Barnes, Patrick Barrett, Don Brown, Dave Campbell, Annett Eiffert, Charlie Finley, Roland Hall, Don Hannula, Jeanne Hofbauer, Roy Hofbauer, Ron Logan, Bob Milk, Dave O'Neil, Catherine Perkins, Larry Phifer, Todd Schaefer, Phyllis Schmidt, Peggy Shea, Jeff Shimp, Wayne Steinmetz, Valerie Sumner, Fred White, Keith Widener. Approved absence for Sharon Hejtmanek.

The amended agenda was approved with additions, the minutes of the September 30 BOD meeting were approved as amended, and Scott Kooistra reported on the TOC and JPW/ACC Open.

All American Team: after discussion, Logan moved to rescind his motion that eliminated the All American Team and restore it as it was prior to the September 30 meeting. Motion approved 21-3. Milk moved to form an ad hoc committee to study expansion of the All American Team. J. Hofbauer amended it to consist of eleven members (three from the Eastern and Central Regions, five from the Western). Motion approved 23-1. Committee members appointed, as follows: Eastern Region: Widener, Milk, and Perkins; Central Region: Steinmetz, Richard Frost, and Shimp; Western: Brown (chair), Hall, Dan Marsh, Larry Hassett, and Herschel Mack.

BOD Agenda: Barnes asked that the BOD agenda be posted on the ACC's website and printed in Cribbage World prior to each meeting.

Hall of Fame: Barrett reported that 100% of the ballots were returned this year. Perkins announced that Patrick Barrett was voted into the Hall of Fame.

Treasurer's Report: Marlene Lazachek discussed the income statement, comparative balance sheet, and cash balance sheet. Items of note: money from Game Colony decreased: we received $7,200 in 2010 and $4,500 in 2011. A new computer was purchased for R. Hofbauer ($547) and a new printer for Larry Hassett ($1,200). Milk moved to approve the treasurer's report. Motion approved.

Policy Manual: Perkins handed out replacement pages. The entire Policy Manual is to be posted on the ACC website.

Membership Secretary's Report: Larry Hassett reported that membership is down slightly. He is reprinting the Cribbage Anyone? flyer.

New MRP Program: Larry Hassett passed out a condensed version of new software program, which will improve and simplify the process. The goal is to review this again at the September meeting and then put it out for bids.

Executive Committee Report (J. Hofbauer): approved new printer for Larry Hassett.

Ethics Committee Report (Logan): did not take any actions.

Grass Roots Program Report (Joan Rein): just over 4,000 members so far this year. Fees for GRRT and GRNT were increased from $12 to $15, with one dollar of the increase being paid back in the prize fund and two dollars going to offset the increase in the cost of awards. A new Grass Roots award level has been established above the Gold level—Platinum.

Youth Cribbage (Dan Zeisler): Dan gets a steady stream of requests for manuals from all over the country. He has seen a huge increase in board donations as boards are being recycled and being put into the hands of youth players and teachers. Dan announced the establishment of the Youth Cribbage Recognition Award to honor the organization or individual who goes out of their way to support the youth cribbage movement. The first winner of this award was Barbara Woodward and the Sands Regency.

Internet Program (Milk): a nine-game Grass Roots-style internet tournament has started on Wednesdays at ecribbage.com. The ACC's Facebook site has been getting about 150 hits per week. The ACC's twitter account is so far being used mainly by the Sands. Milk moved that the ACC spend $400 for a year's worth of advertisement on ecribbage.com. Motion passed.

PR/Publicity Report (Norm Nikodym): Norm has looked into magazine advertising, but is not impressed with it. Finley shared a business card that he has available for Grass Roots clubs. If you email him your club information, he will print business card specifically for your club to hand out.

Judges Report (Shimp): since the inception of peer judging in tournaments, the problem that has plagued us the most has been bad judge decisions. The ACC requires two judges to be present in every ruling. With anyone able to become a judge because it is an open book test, we are considering having a tiered system of judging so that when there is a judge call, a new judge is accompanied by a senior judge. Shimp asked to be informed about bad judging calls.

Tournament Rules & Guidelines Report (R. Hofbauer): after discussion, R. Hofbauer moved that two one-day tournaments may not be held at the same venue on consecutive days, but each regional tournament commissioner may grant a maximum of three weekend exemptions per year per region, retroactive to the beginning of the cribbage season. Motion approved 18-6. R. Hofbauer announced that money taken out of entry fees as a donation to nonprofit organizations or charities should be sent to the tournament commissioners, who will send it to Marlene Lazachek, who in turn will send the money to the charities from the ACC. This information will then be reported in Cribbage World. This will address concerns about where this money goes.

President's Report (J. Hofbauer): copyright has expired on two ACC logos. Motion passed unanimously to renew copyright for both logos.

Executive VP Report (Schaefer): Todd announced that Hannula would be taking over next year as director of the TOC and that Peggy and Rick Shea will be codirecting JPW Open.

VP of Policy Report (Perkins): Cathy issued a replacement page for the Policy Manual that reflected the earlier vote on the All American Team.

VP of Operations Report (Campbell): Dave reported that he approved purchase of two items for Aiken: storage units for CW archives and printer.

Member-at-Large Report (Shimp): no report.

Grand National 31: Joan Rein reported that plans are moving along smoothly. Hotel rooms are $89/night plus $2 for parking. A website will be set up, and raffle tickets will be sold at tournaments prior to GN to aid fundraising.

Grand National 32: O'Neil updated plans for the Atlanta GN; the hotel will hold up to 800 people and is close to many attractions.

Grand National 33: Brian Neeley said plans are in the early stage.

Rule Modification: discussion involved how judges should rule when a player errantly says "go" when the count is 21 or lower. Shimp (head of the judging committee) said that no judge should ever rule a renege in this situation and said that an article in Cribbage World would be appropriate. The issue was sent to the rule committee for inclusion in the next rulebook.

Ethics Committee clarifications: Brown addressed some questions and concerns about membership information. Perkins said that our policy manual states that any information gathered on members can be used only for ACC purposes. It was decided that an attorney review this policy.

ACC's Assumed Power of Discretion: Brown asked whether the ethics committee should have BOD approval prior to any suspension.

Proposal for Three Yearly BOD Meetings: Widener asked that a third BOD meeting be held in Raleigh NC at the National Open in July. He presented three reasons: (1) this would reduce the length of BOD meetings; (2) it would coincide with the end of the cribbage season, which would be an appropriate time to institute changes; and (3) new BOD members could attend the meeting as nonvoting members to get up to speed on issues before the next meeting. A straw poll showed only three BOD members in favor of this.

Proposal to Establish Same Weekend Distance Limitations: Widener would like a rule that two sanctioned tournaments not be held in the same region on the weekend, because they draw from the same pool of people, which reduces the number of people attending. Discussion indicated that there was no interest in pursuing this issue.

Proposal for a National Championship Tournament: Widener would like to see a national championship playoff tournament held at Grand National each year. The tournament would consist of thirty-two players, ten from each region and the two players with the next highest MRP totals. A straw poll indicated enough interest to bring this back to the BOD for further consideration.

Next BOD Meeting: Friday, September 21, at 9a in Appleton WI.
